The Promise:

If you remain in me and I in you, you will bear much fruit; apart from me you can do nothing. (John 15:5)

Ephesians 1:15-23 NIV

<small>15</small> For this reason, ever since I heard about your faith in the Lord Jesus and your love for all God's people, <small>16</small> I have not stopped giving thanks for you, remembering you in my prayers.

<small>17</small> I keep asking that the God of our Lord Jesus Christ, the glorious Father, may give you the Spirit of wisdom and revelation, so that you may know him better.

<small>18</small> I pray that the eyes of your heart may be enlightened in order that you may know the hope to which he has called you, the riches of his glorious inheritance in his holy people, <small>19</small> and his incomparably great power for us who believe. That power is the same as the mighty strength <small>20</small> he exerted when he raised Christ from the dead and seated him at his right hand in the heavenly realms, <small><font

Sermon in a Sentence:

I am secure in Christ but "all other ground is sinking sand."
