

Jake English
January 15, 2013

Growing Insensitive

Having a Lack of Assurance of His Love

- Makes you unsure of your relationship with God.
- Too self focused on your works, or your lack of works.
- Unable to help others in weakness.

- Becoming aware of why God wants to take time with you.
- Jesus always wants you to be honest with yourself.
- Finding God's new plan for your life starts with being honest with yourself, about yourself.
- The first person you need to quit lying to is you.
- He wants you to admit to yourself, "I've done this all night—I fished all night—and I have taken in nothing."

- The Gospel shows us that your performance is not the basis of your acceptance before God.
- God allows you to fail so that you can see it is His grace, not your righteousness, that is the basis of your acceptance.
- the biggest enemy to the Gospel is self sufficiency.

An Assurance with God

- Have an intimacy with Jesus that makes you want to draw close.
- Have a relationship that will fill you with spiritual strength.
- Help take our eyes off of ourselves and the comparisons of others.
- Give us an ability to help others.

John 21:1-25