

Bethany Chapel
Study Questions
Romans 5:12-21
November 10, 2013

1. In what ways is Adam a “pattern of the one to come?”
 2. Discuss the concept “people are basically good” in light of Romans 5:12-21.
 3. What is the difference between a sinful nature and sinful actions?
 4. How does Romans 5:12-21 answer the charge of critics that “God is not fair to condemn someone on the basis of Adam’s sin?”
 5. In what ways have you noticed an “increase in grace” in your life compared to an increase in difficulties?
-

Bethany Chapel
Study Questions
Romans 5:12-21
November 10, 2013

1. In what ways is Adam a “pattern of the one to come?”
2. Discuss the concept “people are basically good” in light of Romans 5:12-21.
3. What is the difference between a sinful nature and sinful actions?
4. How does Romans 5:12-21 answer the charge of critics that “God is not fair to condemn someone on the basis of Adam’s sin?”
5. In what ways have you noticed an “increase in grace” in your life compared to an increase in difficulties?